

Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, is dead.
With sadness and great respect for an extraordinary personality we mourn for Queen Elizabeth II. On behalf of the members of the twinning committee I express to you, our English friends, our deep compassion for the death of Her Majesty, The Queen, for a very special person who enjoyed highest reputation throughout the world. Her devotion, her sense of duty and her loyalty to your country, even in her old age, remain an example for many people. May your monarchy be continued and lived in this sense.

Yours Heike
